

About Us

At Hollywood Subs, freshness takes center stage. Everything you enjoy here is sliced the very same day—no freezers, no microwaves, and no can openers. Just a commitment to serving up the best possible experience, every single time.

After a successful career in the entertainment industry, founder Kevin Porter returned home to Jacksonville, Florida to pursue his next dream: opening his very own sub shop.

Inspired by his time in Tinseltown, Kevin combined his two greatest passions—Hollywood and great food!

So sit back and enjoy the freshness, quality, and generous portions that only Hollywood Subs can deliver.

There's a new star in town!
